

Peg's Pointers

- Choose stories and giving opportunities that appeal or “speak” to you
- Choose stories and giving opportunities that you think would appeal or “speak” to your congregation
 - God’s work through budgeted congregational giving
 - God’s work through special giving opportunities
 - Do not overload on special giving opportunities
- Do not insist that “my cause be your cause”
- Choose a delivery method that works for your personality and your congregation
 - Newsletter article
 - Bulletin insert
 - Temple talk
 - Discussion with groups and individuals: Sunday School classes, council, circles, youth group, etc.
 - Bulletin boards, narthex displays, etc.
 - Involve others
 - Share results from special projects
 - Say thank you
- Share what you are doing with Jan Borchers (our Mission Interpreter Coordinator.) See contact information below.
- Have fun celebrating “God’s work. Our hands.”!

Assembly workshop participants: for further information contact Jan Borchers, Mission Interpreter Coordinator, Southern Ohio Synod, janborchers6@hotmail.com. 937-658-2528